Midwest Young Artists' Young Professionals Board Expectations:

The MYA Young Professionals Board (YPB) is a group of promising young leaders between the ages of 25 and 40 who share the same love and passion for youth performing arts. The Young Professionals Board's focus is to help raise visibility of Midwest Young Artists' mission and support the programs through fundraising and mentoring. Its members also desire to broaden their appreciation and exposure to live classical and jazz music.

If chosen to be on the YP Board, you will be expected to serve a minimum of two (2) years. Additionally, an MYA YP Board Member is expected to annually fulfill the following requirements:

- Actively attend Young Professionals Board Meetings
 - Held six (6) times out of the year
 - First Full meeting is mandatory
- An annual contribution of $100 (or more) donation.
- Attend at least one of the big concerts:
 - October 29, 2017
 - February 25, 2018
 - April 28, 2018
- Attend at least one of the small concerts
 - Music at the Fort Series, Sunday Soirees, etc.
- Volunteer for one of the committees
 - Auction Committee
 - Marketing and Visibility Committee
 - Build the Future Campaign Committee
- Host social events for fundraising and networking

Benefits of being on a Young Professionals Board:

- A complimentary ticket to a concert
- Discounted tickets to the Annual Benefit
- Become a positive role model for youth
- Excellent networking opportunities
- Community involvement
- Develop leadership roles
- Learn more about performing art education
- Connect with the other YP Board Members and the Board of Directors
