Midwest Young Artists Presents

Chamber Music Recital

Saturday, August 16th, 2014

4:00 p.m.

MYA Center, Highwood

featuring musicians from the

Midwest Young Artists

Chamber Music Program

and the

Young Scholars of the

Lang Lang International

Music Foundation

About MYA

MYA reaches over 1,000 students from more than 74 cities in the metropolitan Chicago area, with students ranging in age from 2nd through 12th grades. In addition, MYA now offers classes for early childhood development. MYA strives to provide the highest quality music experience for young musicians nationwide. MYA expects the best out of its students and provides a supportive and nurturing environment. It is a place where students are able to grow with their peers in a competitive, yet friendly atmosphere. MYA has 9 youth orchestras, 3 chamber orchestras, more than 60 chamber music ensembles, 4 choral ensembles, 4 jazz big bands, numerous jazz combos, a wind symphony, early childhood music and movement classes, and music history, theory and composition classes. Students have the opportunity to travel abroad and to perform in major venues throughout Chicago and around the world. Leading the nation in chamber music instruction, MYA graduates are accepted at the most selective conservatories, universities and colleges in the country.

About the Lang Lang International Music Foundation

Lang Lang has been donating his time towards furthering music education for over 10 years. Since the founding of the Foundation in 2008, he has taken his commitment to music education to another level by developing sustainable, impactful, and unique charitable activities, as well as establishing partnerships with dedicated organizations.

The mission of the Foundation is to inspire and motivate the next generation of classical music lovers and performers. The programs encourage social development, morale, and an aspiration for excellence.
