About MYA:

With a vision to create an exceptional environment for young musicians, Midwest Young Artists (MYA) was founded in 1993. MYA reaches over 900 students from more than 74 cities in the metropolitan Chicago area, with students ranging in age from 12 months through 12th grade. MYA strives to provide the highest quality music experience for young musicians nationwide. MYA expects the best out of its students and provides a supportive and nurturing environment. It is a place where students are able to grow with their peers in a competitive, yet friendly atmosphere. MYA has 9 youth orchestras, more than 60 chamber music ensembles, 4 choral groups, several jazz big bands, numerous jazz combos, honors wind symphony, early and new music ensembles, and early childhood music program and classes in music history, theory and composition. Students have the opportunity to travel abroad and to perform in major venues throughout Chicago and around the world. Leading the nation in chamber music instruction, MYA graduates are accepted at the most selective conservatories, universities and colleges in the country.
