Andrew Dahan, voice

"MYAC gave me a chance to sing with other great musicians that I wouldn't normally have had the chance to meet. If I'd had a chance to be part of it longer, I absolutely would have."

"MYAC taught me the value of working hard to achieve my goals and the importance of being part of a supportive community."

Sarah Barnes-Wine, percussion

1998

Doyle Armbrust, viola
Dr. Daniel Kullman

1996

"Technique and rigor are necessary components to creating a sustainable career in classical music, but to me there is nothing more important than developing a love and fascination for music and the act of creation."

"MYAC inspired my decision to become a professional violinist! What more can I say, best musical experiences, best youth chamber music program and opportunities out there!"

Aviva Chertok, violin

2012

Peter Kupfer, bassoon

1997

"Without MYAC, I wouldn't be where I am. MYAC is foundational in my life, plain and simple."

"MYAC taught me the importance of showing up and being accountable to others. While I only play for fun now, MYAC has made me a more informed concert goer, and I'm so very grateful for the two years I got to play at MYAC."

Kathryn Wilcox, viola

PARTNER WITH US

Building a home with the power of music

MIDWEST YOUNG ARTISTS CONSERVATORY

You make the MYAC experience possible!

Your belief in our mission "to build a home with the power of music to enrich the lives of our students and their communities" has made it possible for MYAC to grow and evolve with the needs of our students, communities, and society for over 30 years.

Your support has:

- Brought families closer together through the love of music
- Encouraged students to follow their dreams and believe in themselves
- Inspired every MYAC faculty, staff member, and volunteer to work to make the world a better place
- Allowed us the opportunity to be an example of positive core values demonstrating work ethic, responsibility, reliability, cooperation, and ethical and moral values
- Created an environment where every student no matter their race, gender identity, sexual orientation, or financial background is welcomed and celebrated
- Made it possible for our students to perform in prestigious venues like Symphony Center, Millennium Park, Lyric Opera, Ravinia Main Stage and Bennett Gordon Hall, Pick-Staiger Hall, and Harris Theater
- Allowed students to travel and perform on world-class stages in Europe, China, and South Korea
- Solidified MYAC as a financially stable organization well-suited to continue serving more students, families, and communities
- Enabled weekly educational opportunities and community performances
- Kept classical music alive not only within our walls, but all over the greater Chicago area and beyond
- Provided scholarships and need based financial aid to students
